- Appropriate – all communication from the club should be professional and use proper language. When writing about a legal or constitutional matter exact quotation from the appropriate constitution and by-laws should be used.

Correspondence (Communication)

Keeping written communication organized is a very important part of the club secretary role.

- Organization is very important to the role of the club secretary as they are the club information resource center.
- How communication is organized will be decided at the beginning of the term through a discussion with the club president or officers.

Correspondence (Communication)

Note:

It has been found that keeping club records of correspondence in one file is an efficient way of keeping track of communication throughout the year.

Correspondence (Communication)

When working with the president on responding to communication:

- Provide copies of all correspondence to the president
 - During the beginning of the year term discuss routine correspondence and what can be answered without the president's input.
- The president will review and advise if subsequent action is necessary
 - The secretary may be requested to respond on president's behalf or the president may respond personally

Reports

The club secretary is responsible for completing and filing reports. It is also the club secretary's responsibility to know the due dates of reports and to ensure they are submitted on time.

Reports

The following are reports the club secretary should be aware of:

- Monthly Membership Report
- Activities report (A-1)
- Reports as specified by the association

- Oral reports (concise, factual and to the point)
 - As specified by club president

Reports

- Monthly Membership Report
 - The monthly membership report reports the club's membership for the month. This includes member losses and gains
 - Clubs need to report online through the MYLCI system, transactions must now be entered by the last day of the current month.

Reports

- Monthly/Yearly Club Activity Report
 - Keeping records of a club's activities is the responsibility of the club secretary.
 - This information is reported through the MyLion

Reports

- Transfer Member Form

- For a transfer to be completed, two activities must take place—a drop from one club and a transfer into another.
- A drop from one club must happen first; a transfer into a new club must happen second.

Reports

- Transfer Member Form
 - Club secretaries are responsible for reporting drops and transfers in their MYLCI .

What is the MYCLCI and how does the club secretary use it?

- The MYLCI system is an online system helping to make membership updating easy and convenient.

MYLCI Reporting

- LCI encourages use of the MYLCI and offers three easy-to-follow guides:
 - Activity Guide for getting started
 - Complete Reference Guide for membership changes
 - Family Unit Guide section for reporting family members and changes

MYLCI Reporting

- Club supplies
 - Member cards and stationary

Meetings

The club secretary is an integral part of club meetings, both in preparation and during the meetings.

Meetings

The secretary creates agendas in conjunction with the president

- The agenda should be prepared in advance and distributed to members prior to the meeting.
- The club president has final approval on the agenda.

Meetings

When creating agendas, keep in mind that agendas for meetings will vary.

- A general agenda includes (but is not limited to)
 - Approval of minutes from previous meeting
 - President's remarks
 - Correspondence received
 - Secretary and or treasurer reports
 - General business

Meetings

The secretary is also responsible for:

- Notifying participants of meeting times and location
- Recording attendance, make-up meetings and awards presented
- Recording minutes during club meetings (if it is not in the minutes, then it did not happen)

Meetings

Some things to consider when recording meeting minutes:

- Use appropriate language and documentation to ensure accurate minutes
- Prepare meeting minutes as soon as possible following the meeting
- Officers should review the completed minutes
- Following review, minutes should be sent promptly to all members
- A copy of the minutes should be filed

Leadership

As one of the officers in the club, club members will look to the secretary for guidance, information and to help solve problems.

Leadership

- It is important for an officer in a leadership position to communicate effectively.
- On the Lions Clubs International Web site there are courses available to learn leadership and communication skills:
 - Leadership course
 - Public Relations course

Resources

Throughout the year the club secretary may have questions or feel they need guidance in order to be effective in their role.

Resources

Some resources for the club secretary include:

- Lions club members
 - Past secretaries or other club secretaries
